Impact of The 2016 Kumamoto Earthquakes

SECOM extends its deepest sympathy to all those affected by The 2016 Kumamoto Earthquakes.

SECOM continues to cope with and recover from the disaster, and provided the following update.

1. Damage

(a) Personnel

The safety of all Group employees has been verified, except some minor injuries suffered in their homes.

(b) Facilities

Despite some of our offices were damaged by the earthquakes, the Group has taken steps to enable the prompt resumption of these facilities' operations, including securing alternative sites. The Group's control centers, the core of its security services operations, continue to operate normally. Secom has been earnestly conducting survey of the damages on clients' premises caused by the earthquakes.

2. Impact on Financial Performance

SECOM is presently evaluating the impact of the earthquakes on its operating results for the current fiscal year. Should it be determined that the impact is substantial, SECOM will disclose it in a timely manner.
